

Stuart Gunning from Northgate presents the award to David Shaw of Benmore Management Consultants Ltd.

Benmore Management Consultants Ltd were the winners of The 2005 Best Application of Technology award sponsored by Northgate Information Solutions.

“The company proved that by integrating their experience in the field of Health & Safety training, and by applying communication and presentation technology, they had clearly demonstrated that they can provide businesses in Newtownabbey and further afield with a full Health & Safety Package comprising training tool kits for many different business sectors in a new and innovative interactive package” Pamela Ballentine.

Benmore
Doing more for all
Business in Northern Ireland

November 2005

Details of Benmore services:

General Health & Safety

Health & Safety Policy - Reliable and business specific Health & Safety Policy written on the company's behalf and introduced to your employees so that they understand their responsibility under the Health & Safety at Work (NI) Order.

HS01 Survey, report & Policy document

From £200 for under 10 employees

Risk Assessment - Report and Action Plan drafted outlining the Risks specific to your business, the work environment, systems and processes conducted within your business premises and other areas affecting staff.

HS02 Survey, report & remedial action

From £350 for sme

Risk Awareness Training - To include awareness training covering the areas of risk within the workplace, as well ensuring that staff understand their responsibilities relating to this important area. Legislation applies to places of work with five or more employees. In house certificates are provided for record purposes.

HS03 Half day training session including in-house certificate

From £250 for 10 employees

General Human Resources

Contracts of Employment - Reliable and business (Job) specific Contracts written up on behalf of the company and introduced to your employees so that they understand their contractual obligations and their duty to the employer.

HR01 Contract of Employment and Statement of main Terms and Conditions £35 per head

HR Policies and Procedures - Range of specific Employment Policies covering the needs of the company, looking at legislative requirements for the size keeping them simplified and specific for the management of human resources within the business.

HR02 Consultation and prescribed Policies

From £450 for under 15 employees

Benmore
For more information
Contact David - mobile
07801 783547

November